Jessica tells Filipino fans: I love you all so much

By Mary L. Thomas
Staff Reporter

MANILA (AP) — Jessica Hagedorn, author of the novel "The Last House on the Left," told her Filipino fans in Manila that she loves them all so much.

Hagedorn, who is a well-known author in the Philippines, said she was in Manila to promote her new book, "The Last House on the Left," which is a novel about a woman who is a victim of domestic violence.

"Thank you for making me," she said, "and for making me feel like I am part of the Filipino community."

Corona in-laws speak up

'Why were we not asked to bid for BGEI?'

By Ma. Cora P. Dizon

WHEN CORONA members of the family of the late Maria Rosa discussed whether they should come out of the shadows and speak about what they knew then and knew now about Bana-Cashew Enterprises Inc. (BCEI) assets, someone from the younger generation piped in with the warning: 'Mind it might when good men do nothing.'

The BCEI assets are the subject of a lawsuit filed by the Philippine state-owned bank, BPI, against the family of the late Maria Rosa.

But her husband, the late Maria Rosa, was not asked to bid for BCEI assets, and she was not asked to bid for BCEI assets.

"I was not asked to bid for BCEI assets," she said. "I was not asked to bid for BCEI assets."

'Morong 5' to testify

Manila—The five men accused of the 1998 murder of a police officer, known as the "Morong 5," are set to testify in court on Wednesday. The men, who were arrested in 2001, are accused of killing a police officer and his wife. The case has been a long-running legal battle, with the men claiming innocence and the prosecution claiming guilt. The trial is expected to last several more days.

Sino tours to Boracay canceled

MANILA, May 14 (AP) — The Chinese government has canceled a tour to Boracay, Philippines, after a local official said the tour was "not safe" due to the recent typhoon. The tour was scheduled for May 15 and 16, but the Chinese government decided to cancel it after receiving reports from the local government that the area was still recovering from the damage caused by the typhoon. The tour was organized by a Chinese travel agency and was expected to attract a large number of Chinese tourists. The local government had been working to prepare for the tour, but the typhoon had caused significant damage to the area, including the destruction of many buildings and the flooding of roads. The Chinese government's decision to cancel the tour is a setback for the local tourism industry, which has been struggling to recover from the damage caused by the typhoon.

MWDA, Metro officials start preparing for rainy season

By The Times

San Diego, Calif. (UPI) — Metro officials are preparing for the rainy season by conducting a series of inspections and repairs to the city's water supply system. The inspections are being conducted by the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California (MWDA) and the city's Department of Public Works. The inspections are being conducted in order to identify any potential problems with the system and to make any necessary repairs before the rainy season begins. The inspections are being conducted in a systematic manner, with each area of the system being inspected in turn. The inspections are being conducted by a team of experts who are experienced in the field of water supply systems. The inspections are being conducted in order to ensure that the system is in good working order and that any potential problems are identified and repaired before they become a major problem. The inspections are being conducted in a timely manner, so that any necessary repairs can be made before the rainy season begins. Practical ways to avoid bank fraud, identity theft

By [illegible]

In 2012, about 100 million Americans were victims of identity theft, according to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. That's a significant increase from the 75 million victims in 2011. The FBI estimates that the cost of identity theft to the U.S. economy is $53.9 billion annually. While the FBI estimates that the cost of identity theft to the U.S. economy is $53.9 billion annually, the actual cost is likely much higher. US firm tapped for Asean customs link

New system seen to boost regional trade

By David M. Llanes

MANILA, Philippines — A US-based technology firm has been selected to develop a new customs system for the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (Asean). The system is expected to streamline trade procedures and reduce processing times across the region. The firm, known for its expertise in logistics and supply chain management, will work closely with Asean member states to implement the system. The project is part of a larger initiative to enhance regional trade efficiency and foster economic growth. The new system will be a cloud-based platform that allows customs authorities to share information and process declarations more quickly. This is expected to significantly reduce the time and cost of moving goods across borders in the Asean region.

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippine government has announced a new initiative to boost regional trade. The initiative involves the implementation of a new customs system that will streamline trade procedures and reduce processing times across the region. The system is expected to be a significant step forward in improving the efficiency of the country's trade infrastructure.

Highway tolls rate hike to fund off road assets

By David M. Llanes

MANILA, Philippines — The Department of Transportation (DOTr) has announced a rate hike for highway tolls. The increase is intended to generate additional revenue to fund the development and maintenance of off-road assets, such as bridges, tunnels, and other infrastructure. The DOTr officials stated that the toll hike is a necessary measure to ensure the long-term sustainability of the transportation system. The new rates will be implemented starting next month. The DOTr is also planning to invest the additional funds in various infrastructure projects, including the construction of new roads and the improvement of existing ones. This move is expected to help address the growing demand for better transportation facilities and improve the overall quality of the road network.

SBC income hit P1.1B in Q1

By David M. Llanes

MANILA, Philippines — The State Bank of China (SBC) has reported a significant increase in its income for the first quarter. The bank's income reached P1.1 billion, a testament to its strong performance and the growing demand for its services. SBC officials expressed confidence in the bank's future prospects and its ability to continue to provide high-quality financial services to its customers. The increase in income was driven by a combination of factors, including higher interest rates and increased transaction volume. SBC is committed to maintaining its position as a leading financial institution in the Philippines and continues to invest in its infrastructure and services to meet the needs of its customers.

Botong Francisco's 'Nose Flute' up for auction at Larasati on National Artist's birth centennial

By Christine
 @ 12:00 PM

All-time 20th-century Filipino artist is being honored by the Larasati Foundation, the country's premier art collector, in a special auction of his work. The auction, which will include a selection of Botong Francisco's (1903-1990) paintings, drawings, and sculptures, will be held at the Larasati Foundation's gallery in Manila on May 13-14, 2002. The auction is part of the Larasati Foundation's centennial celebration of the artist's birth.

The Larasati Foundation, which was founded by the late Larasati Foundation, is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion and preservation of Philippine art. The foundation's collection includes works by many of the most important Filipino artists of the 20th century, including Botong Francisco, Juan Luna, and Amalio Ortega. The foundation's mission is to provide a platform for the sale and exhibition of these works, and to support the development of the Philippine art market.

Interest in his life and work has not waned

Francisco's work has remained popular among collectors and the general public alike. His paintings, which often depicted scenes from Philippine life, are highly sought after. The Larasati Foundation's auction of his work is expected to attract a large number of bidders, and to generate significant proceeds for the foundation's activities.

The painting, which is a reproduction of the original, is a large-scale work that depicts a group of people in a traditional setting. The painting is characterized by its bold colors and expressive brushwork, and it is considered one of Francisco's most important works.

The Larasati Foundation's auction of Francisco's work is part of a larger effort to promote the artist's work and to support the development of the Philippine art market. The foundation's collection of Francisco's work is one of the most comprehensive in the world, and it is hoped that the auction will help to raise the profile of the artist and to encourage more people to collect and display his work.

Multitasking at Galerie Artes gathers artists who hated from advertising

The Galerie Artes, a new art gallery in Manila, is hosting a series of exhibitions that feature works by artists who have been involved in advertising. The gallery's mission is to provide a platform for these artists to showcase their work, and to explore the relationship between art and advertising. The first exhibition, which is titled "Multitasking," features works by several artists who have been involved in advertising, including some of the most prominent figures in the Philippine advertising industry.

Nomination for Menem art awards open again

The nomination period for the Menem Art Awards is now open again. The awards, which are named after the late Menem, are given to artists who have made significant contributions to the Philippine art scene. The awards are open to artists of all ages and backgrounds, and they are considered one of the most prestigious honors in the Philippine art world. The nomination period will close on May 15, 2002, and artists are encouraged to submit their nominations as soon as possible.

Tam Aguirre receives award

Agustina Aguirre, a prominent Filipino artist, has been awarded the National Artist Award for Visual Arts. The award is given to artists who have made significant contributions to the Philippine art scene, and it is considered one of the highest honors in the country. Aguirre's work, which often depicted scenes from Philippine life, is highly regarded, and her award is a testament to her talent and dedication to the art form.

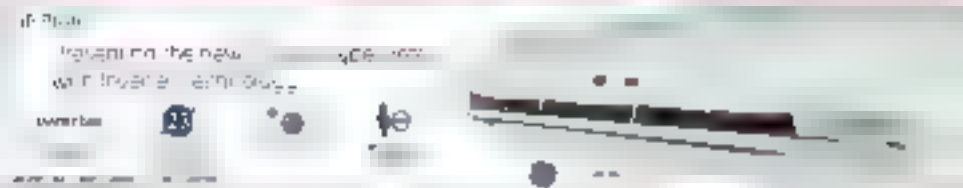

Jennina Reyes at Ricco Renzo

Jennina Reyes and Ricco Renzo are two of the most prominent contemporary Filipino artists. Reyes' work, which often depicts scenes from Philippine life, is highly regarded, and Renzo's work, which often depicts abstract forms, is also highly regarded. Both artists have made significant contributions to the Philippine art scene, and their work is highly sought after by collectors and the general public alike.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. In this case, the problem is that the company is not meeting its sales targets.

James H. Brown, Jr., a 1978 graduate of the University of Maryland, is shown in a photograph. He is a young man with dark hair, wearing a light-colored shirt, and is smiling. He is standing in front of a large, dark, rectangular object, possibly a piece of equipment or a large box, in an outdoor setting. The photograph is in black and white and is located in the bottom right corner of the page.
